War Memorial

- In 2000, a memorial was established for Flight Sergeant Charles Sydney who was killed on the 27th September 1940.
- His Spitfire R6767 was shot down and crashed at the west end of Station Avenue.
- A service is dedicated on the anniversary of the crash every year.

