- A solicitor wants confirmation of their clients' official address. This would be a charge of £55.

Street Naming and Property Numbering

To ensure that all new addresses comply with BS7666 (British Standard for creating and maintaining a Local Land and Property Gazetteer), the following guidelines will be adhered to.

Procedure for determining new street names

See Section 17 of the Public Health Act 1925

- Following commencement of works on site, the developer will be requested to supply three preferred names for consideration for each of the new streets being constructed. If less than three names are submitted, the Ward Councillors will provide other suitable names and the developer will be informed accordingly.
- Within 5 working days following receipt of the applicants three preferred names, (providing that they conform with the Councils Policy Guidelines), the appropriate Ward Councillors and Royal Mail will be consulted by email. The period allowed for consultation shall be 14 days from the date of the email to the Ward Councillors and Royal Mail. The stipulated 'deadline' date will be strictly adhered to, due to the legally imposed time limit.
- If by the stipulated 'deadline' date, one of the offered names is considered acceptable by all or a majority of the consultees then that name will be adopted, the properties within the new street will be numbered and an official plan produced. The plan will be distributed to the applicant and other relevant parties as detailed.

- If no response is received from consultees by the specified 'deadline' date, then the GIS & LLPG Manager will select one of the three preferred names, the properties within the new street will be numbered, an official plan produced and distributed to the applicant and other relevant parties as detailed.
- If none of the proposed names are considered acceptable by the Ward Councillors, they have until the stipulated 'deadline' date to put forward their own name suggestion. This suggestion will be checked for compliance with the policy. The applicant will be immediately informed (by email) of objection to their preferred name. In serving a written notice of objection, the applicant will be asked to accept the name put forward by the Ward Councillors. If the applicant declines, they have 21 days (under Section 17 (4) of the Public Health Act 1925), the right to appeal to a Magistrates court. In such circumstances the Council will have to defend the case before the Magistrates Court. The Ward Councillors will have to give evidence before the Magistrates should this be necessary.

Policy guidelines for naming streets

The following guidelines must be considered when seeking a new name for a street:

- New street names should have some connection with the area and should conform to the guidelines set out below.
- New street names should try to avoid duplicating any similar name already in use in a borough or neighbouring boroughs. A variation in the terminal word, example, "street", "road", "avenue", will not be accepted as sufficient reason to duplicate a name. The overwhelming desire of applicants is to repeat existing names in a new road or building titles (for instance a request for St Mary's Close off an existing St Mary's Way, near St Mary's Church etc).
- Street names should not be difficult to pronounce or awkward to spell.
- Names that are aesthetically unsuitable must be avoided such as Gasworks Road, Packemin Close, Tip Lane, Coalpit Lane or names capable of deliberate misinterpretation like Hoare Road, Typple Avenue, Swag Lane, Quare Street etc.
- The Authority will have no informal adoption of unofficial 'marketing' titles used by developers in the sale of new properties (these often fall foul of our Policy on a number of counts and occupiers of such premises unfortunately feel aggrieved by the 'loss' of a supposedly prestigious address and its replacement with something perhaps a little more mundane).

- All new street names should end with one of the following suffixes:
 Street (for any thoroughfare)
 Road (for any thoroughfare)
 Way (for major roads)
 Avenue (for residential roads)
 Drive (for residential roads)
 Grove (for residential roads)
 Lane (for residential roads)
 Gardens (for residential roads) subject to there being no confusion with any local open space
 Place (for residential roads)
 Crescent (for a crescent shaped road)
 Close (for a cul-de-sac only)
 Square (for a square only)
 Hill (for a hillside road only)
 Circus (for a large roundabout)
 Vale (for residential roads) only for exceptional use
 Rise (for residential roads) only for exceptional use
 Dene (for residential roads) only for exceptional use
 Mead (for residential roads) only for exceptional use
 Mews (for residential roads) only for exceptional use
 Suffixes which are not acceptable:
 End, Cross, Side, View, Walk, Park, Meadow, Court, Wharf.
 All these words can, of course, be incorporated in a street name provided it ends with an appropriate suffix (example Mile End Road).
 Exceptions:
 Single or dual names without suffixes in appropriate places (example, Broadway for major roads only).
- All new pedestrian ways should end with one of the following suffixes:
 Walk
 Path
 Way
- No street name should be prefixed with "The".
- The use of North, East, South or West (as in Alfred Road North and Alfred Road South, or East or West) is only acceptable where the road is continuous and passes over a major junction. It is not acceptable when the road is in two separate parts with no vehicular access between the two. In such a case half should be renamed.
- Avoid having two phonetically similar names within a postal area and, if possible, within a borough, example, Alfred Road and Alfred Close or Churchill Road and Birch Hill Road.
- The use of a name which relates to people either living, or deceased should be avoided if possible. Only in very exceptional circumstances would such a suggestion be given consideration.

- The use of tree names will not be considered; mainly due to the duplication of many existing streets named within the borough.

Policy guidelines for numbering and naming properties

- Properties in a new street will be numbered with even numbers on one side and odd numbers on the other except that, for a cul-de-sac, consecutive numbering in a clockwise direction is preferred.
- Private garages and similar buildings used for housing cars, and such like, will not be addressed.
- A proper sequence shall be maintained, with no numbers omitted.
- Buildings (including those on corner sites) are numbered according to the street in which the main entrance is to be found.
- The manipulation of numbering in order to secure a "prestige" address or to avoid an address, which is thought to have undesired associations will not be sanctioned.
- In circumstances where an existing street or similar is extended, it would be appropriate to continue to use the same street name. This would be subject to the limitations of the existing numbering scheme.
- If a building has entrances in more than one street, then each entrance will be numbered in the appropriate road. Exceptions may be made, depending on the circumstances, for a house divided into flats.
- In residential buildings (example, blocks of flats) it is usual to give a street number to each building; each dwelling is then numbered internally.
- Legislation permits the use of numbers followed by letters. These are needed, for instance, when one large house in a road is demolished and replaced by a number of smaller houses.
To include the new houses in the numbered road sequence would involve renumbering all the higher numbered houses on that side of the road, which is considered unacceptable. Therefore, to avoid this each new house will be given the number of the old house with a suffix of either A, B, C or D etc.
- No new 'infill' property will be allocated a number with a suffix where the number relates to a property unrelated to the development. For example, a property built on land between 12 and 14 where the land belonged to 14 will be numbered 14A. Where no numbers are available property names would be requested.
- For private houses in existing unnumbered roads it is essential that the houses are officially allocated names, which are registered with the emergency services.

Anyone wishing to change the name of their unnumbered house must apply online to the Council. Once the name has been accepted the Council will notify Royal Mail of the change but it is the responsibility of the person requesting the change to notify Land Registry and all their personal contacts.

- Where a property has a number, it must be used and displayed. If property numbers are not clearly and correctly displayed this can pose a significant risk to the Emergency Services and citizen welfare. Where a name has been chosen in addition to a number, the number must always be included, the name cannot be regarded as an alternative.
- All new building names should end with one of the following suffixes:
 - House
 - Court - residential only
 - Point - high block residential only
 - Tower - high block offices or residential
 - Heights - high block offices or residentialFor private houses it is sufficient that the name should not repeat the name of the road or that of any other house or building in the area. It is recommended that house names are not prefixed with "The".

Policy guidelines for renaming a street / renumbering properties

See Section 18 of the Public Health Act 1925

- Renaming an existing street / renumbering properties within an existing street is avoided unless the benefits clearly outweigh the obvious disadvantages.
- On rare occasions this becomes necessary it is usually only done as a last resort when:
 - there is confusion over a street's name and / or property numbering
 - the residents are unhappy with their street name
 - the number of named-only properties in a street is deemed to be causing confusion for emergency services, visitors or deliveries.
 - In such instances it is the responsibility of those requesting a change to consult the residents of the street on the issue. This will ensure that residents views are taken into account and the results must be submitted to the Council. In addition, they must consult Royal Mail for their position on the issue. To change a street name or renumber properties Information & Communication Technology will require 100% support from the residents of the street as any subsequent change can be very disruptive by causing individuals to have to change all their personal address details. The consultation process referred to in this policy will be implemented before any street is renamed. This a very time consuming process and can be very emotive for those involved and should therefore only be contemplated as a last resort. This will be subject to charges detailed.
